DIRECTOR'S STATEMENT

Dear Friends,

As the founding force behind Tamir Welfare Organization, I am inspired every day by the difference we can make. Our journey is fueled by creativity, respect, and a steadfast commitment to those with disabilities. Together, we are breaking down barriers, fostering dignity, and building a society that honors every individual's potential.

Join us as we continue to champion inclusivity and empowerment for all.

Warm regards,

Stephen Anjum

Vision & Mission

Vision: To forge an inclusive, barrier-free, and rights-based society in Pakistan by empowering its disadvantaged communities.

Mission: Our mission is to cultivate an inclusive community by ensuring access to adequate resources and equal opportunities. We are committed to providing community-based services and fostering collaborative partnerships to achieve this goal.

Aims & Objectives

Community Empowerment: Strengthen both rural and urban communities through self-reliance activities.

Self-determination Promotion: Support the self-determination of economically disadvantaged women, children, and people with disabilities.

Sustainable Development Programs: Initiate self-sustainable programs focusing on education, health, and disability.

Humanitarian Aid: Offer humanitarian relief services and contribute to rebuilding devastated communities in times of need.

Tamir History

Established on January 1, 1996, and registered on October 23, 1996, Tamir Welfare Organization stands as a leading rights-based, cross-disability-focused entity in Pakistan. With a non-profit, non-sectarian, and non-political stance, Tamir is dedicated to strengthening community bonds through various development projects, fostering self-reliance, sufficiency, and sustained opportunities. Since its inception, Tamir has been committed to providing quality services to people with disabilities, partnering with Leonard Cheshire Services in 1998 to further disability and development programs in Pakistan.

Our Values

- Valuing Individuals: We prioritize understanding and listening to persons with disabilities, recognizing their needs and aspirations.
- Collaboration: Our achievements are found in the success of the individuals we support.
- Honesty: We maintain trust with stakeholders by clarity in our capabilities, fulfilling our promises.
- Creativity: We encourage innovation in our services, exploring new methodologies and areas of work.
- Energy: We set ambitious goals and dedicate ourselves to their realization.
- Respect and Dignity: We uphold mutual respect, honor, and dignity in all interactions.
- Transparency and Accountability: We practice openness, transparency, and accountability in all our operations.
